Syllabus

What is the Pentateuch?

- The first five books of God's Holy Word which contain the record of the beginning and origin of all things and shadows of all subsequent Biblical revelation.
- One of the most diverse and powerful studies of the Bible.
- Essentially, the Pentateuch is the foundation of all spiritual truth and social principle!

What does this course involve?

- You will be reading the textbook and responding to the essays by answering questions.
- Each section will conclude with Study Questions that are answered 'open book' which prepares you for the test that follows. The test is not 'open book' but is taken by memory.
- You will be consecutively reading each of the five books of the Pentateuch at the same time producing a question and answer from each chapter.
- You will be studying on your own various topics relating to the Pentateuch; such as: The Feasts of the Lord, and Murmurings in the Wilderness.
- You will be memorizing Scripture.
- You will complete an open book Final Exam at the conclusion of this course that will test your understanding of the Pentateuch.

How is this Course Divided?

- This course is divided into five (5) main sections. Each section will conclude with: 1) a special assignment 2) study questions and 3) a test.
  1. Section 1: Genesis
  2. Section 2: Exodus
  3. Section 3: Leviticus
  4. Section 4: Numbers
  5. Section 5: Deuteronomy

All assignments in this course are either:

B. Open Book

Resources may be used to answer questions; such as, this textbook, the Bible, commentaries, and etc. OR,

C. Closed Book

Deliverance Bible Institute
PENTATEUCH

No resources are to be used. Closed book assignments are by memory only and are designed to test your memory as well as comprehension.
